(Noble Middle School)- (650350) School Improvement Plan Executive Summary
Community Building	Content Planning
- Update parents and students weekly regarding classroom activities and learning objectives utilizing teacher webpages, email lists, social media, Remind, student planners, and other communication tools - Teachers will provide tutoring for students at various times at least once a week - Character development and community building weeks (i.e NAB week, Starts Hello Week, Autism Awareness Week) will be held periodically - Community service will be promoted through clubs (i.e SAVE, FCA, SCA)	- Teachers will collaborate through PLT meetings to unpack objectives, develop learning targets, and share lesson plans, instructional resources, and ideas for the utilization of technology. - Teachers will collaborate with the Gifted Education Specialist and Special Education teachers through PLT meetings to appropriately differentiate instruction. - Teachers will collaborate during district wide content meetings.
Instruction	Assessment for Learning
- Teachers will post learning targets developed collaboratively in their classrooms for each lesson. - Teachers will consistently integrate technology into lessons - Teachers will utilize the Cognitive Rigor Matrix to increase rigor in lessons. - Administration will provide instructional feedback to teachers through classroom walk throughs. - Teachers will utilize district curated curriculum when available. - Special education teachers will implement research based instructional programs for identified students. - Teachers will embed formative assessment into instruction utilizing technology and other methods.	- Teachers will implement PLT developed formative assessments - Teachers will analyze all common formative assessments (i.e. NC Check-ins, District Benchmarks) individually and in PLT meetings - Teachers will embed a variety of quick or informal assessments into instruction - Teachers will utilize technology to administer formative assessments (i.e Membean, KaHoot!, Khan Academy, Quizizz) - Teachers will use project based learning as a form of assessment